

SUSTAINABILITY DIALOGUE SERIES

Elevating Hispanic Heritage Month
Activating Latinos & The SDGs

September 15 – October 15, 2022

“The seventeen Sustainable Development Goals are our shared vision of humanity and a social contract between the world’s leaders and the people,” UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon said of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Adopted unanimously by 193 Heads of State at the United Nations Headquarters in New York in 2015, the SDGs are a to-do list for people & planet.

The 17 global goals aim to wipe out poverty, fight inequality and tackle climate change over the next 15 years.

“THINKING GLOBALLY, ACTING LOCALLY”

Aligning your brand to sustainable development

Sustainability Dialogue Series

The Sustainability Dialogue Series are thoughtful, purposeful, and authentic conversations among subject matter experts, established and emergent leaders committed to address systemic issues and share innovative, viable and equitable solutions tackling environmental stewardship, economic growth and social progress.

Joined by members of academia, private, public and nonprofit sectors, financial and philanthropic institutions and community leaders seeking personal & professional enrichment, food for thought & reflective practices and networking and partnership opportunities.
